

Terex Parts

Terex Parts - Terex Forklifts takes great delight in developing quality equipment that helps better their customers' efficiency while standing by their mission to offer a cost effective yet consistent product line. Through several divestures and acquisitions planned to expand the product offering, Terex has of late expanded dramatically. They have improved their geographic coverage to enable them to supply quality standards and value for their broad customer base.

Remaining a aggressive player in the industrialized equipment sector, Terex is building a franchise under the Terex brand name. The business is incorporating their previous brand names for some of their parts in conjunction operations the Terex brand for a smooth transition process. Currently, Terex goods are principally marketed under the Terex name. Several of the following historic name brands and transitional names include: ATC, Amida, American Truck Company, American, Advance, Bartell, Benford, Bendini, Bid-Well, CMI, CMI-Cifali, CMI Johnson-Ross, Cedarapids, Canica, Comedil, Demag, ELJay, Franna, Fermac, Finlay, Fuchs, Genie, Hi-Ranger, Jaques, Load King, Morrison, O&K, Peiner, PPM, Powerscreen, Pegson, Reedrill, Schaeff, Simplicity, Standard Havens, Tatra, TerexLift, Telelect and Unit Rig.

Terex has had a constant growth sequence. In 1995 Terex acquired PPM Cranes, in 1996, then Terex divested Clark Materials Handling. In 1997 Terex acquires Telelect and Simon-RO. BPI Handlers in Baraga, Michigan is also acquired this same year.

Acquiring O&K Mining and Payhauler in 1998, allowed Terex to grow their mining business. The same year their crane offering expanded their operations radically with the acquisitions of Gru Comedil, TerexLift, American Crane and Peiner. A Light Building business soon followed in 1999 when Terex acquired Amida, Bartell and Benford. They soon became a leader within the crushing and screening industry by acquiring Cedarapids, Powerscreen, BL Pegson, Re-Tech, and Finlay. Franna, Kooi and Princeton crane manufacturers were also added to Terex in 1999.

By the year 2000, Terex extended into the Compact Equipment industry, acquiring Fermac who is a maker specializing in tractor loader backhoes. Their Light Construction business continued to expand business with the acquisition of Coleman Engineering. This same year, Terex divested Moffett, Kooi and Princeton.

Terex beefed up its Roadbuilding division in 2001, business with the purchases of Bid-well, Load King, CMI, Jaques and Atlas.

A few of the acquisitions that took place in 2002 made it easier for Terex to grow into a leader in their respective categories. Advance Mixer helped thrust Terex into the concrete mixing industry, while Demag helped Terex Cranes become a leader in the crane market. Acquiring German suppliers Fuchs and Schaeff placed Terex in a top position in the Compact Equipment category. Genie became a primary producer of Aerial Work Platforms. This busy year was completed operations with the purchases of EPAC and Pacific Utility, which provided company-owned distribution for Terex Utilities.

Tatra, a producer of heavy-duty vehicles designed for on and off-road commercial and military applications were purchased in 2003. Buying Combatel and Commercial Body the same year allowed Terex to continue to expand its company-owned Terex Utilities distribution.

In 2004, Terex acquired Reedrill, a producer of surface drilling equipment for use within the construction, utility and mining markets. Noble CE, which was known as Terex Mexico was also purchased this year. They design high capacity surface mining vehicles and also fabricate many components for other Terex businesses.
